

JUN
7

6-8 PM

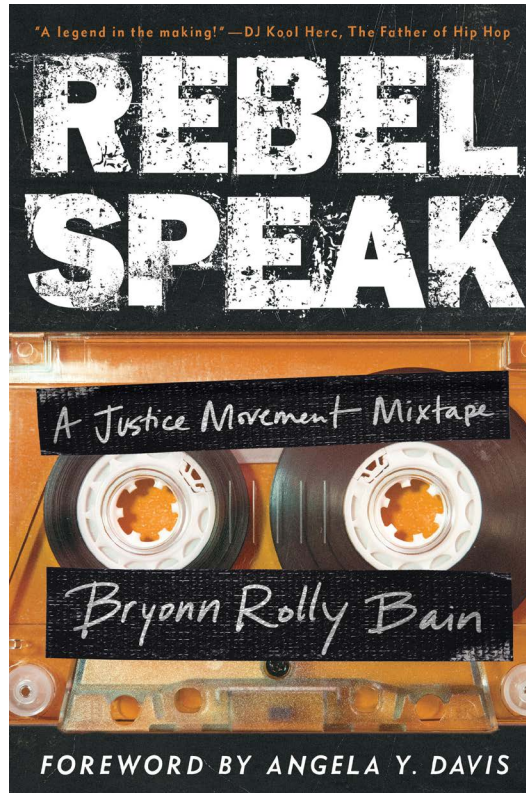

IN PERSON

FREE ADMISSION
WITH RSVP

PARKING: UCLA LOT 4,
198 Westwood Plaza
at Sunset Blvd; $3/hr.

fowler.ucla.edu/programs

Cover of REBEL SPEAK: A Justice Movement Mixtape.
University of California Press, 2022.

REBEL SPEAKEASY: A Center for Justice Kickoff with Bryonn Bain

Join us for an evening of art by system-impacted and formerly incarcerated artists, and a dialogue between Bryonn Bain, prison activist, artist, scholar, author, and UCLA professor, and Adriana Galvan, Dean of Undergraduate Studies, neuroscientist, and criminal justice reform advocate. Featuring special performances by the Women Beyond Bars Initiative (WBBi), the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC) the Prison Education Project at Cal Poly Pomona, and the Bruin Underground Scholars Initiative.

This outdoor event in the Fowler amphitheater marks the release of REBEL SPEAK: A Justice Movement Mixtape by Bryonn Bain, a “literary mixtape” featuring conversations with rebel voices from the front lines of movements rising for justice. A book signing will follow the program.

